

Send information for publication on this page to: Mary Anne Frey, Ph.D.
 Lockheed Engineering & Science Co.
 500 E Street, SW, Ste. 800
 Washington, DC 20024
 (202) 803-5248

SPACE MEDICINE BRANCH REPORT

Program Committee Report

Guy Banta, Ph.D., M.P.H., Chair
Smith Johnston, M.D., Committee member
Arthur Arnold, M.D., Committee member

At this year's annual meeting in Anaheim, the Space Medicine Branch has the distinct privilege of sponsoring two scientific panels on Tuesday, May 9, 1995.

Tuesday, 2:00 p.m. North Ballroom

NASA Astronaut Medical Selection: A Panel Review of the Last Three Selection Cycles 1989, 1991, 1994

Chairperson – Dr. A. E. Nicogssian

Presentation

“An Overview of NASA’s Astronaut Medical Selection Process for the Last Three Selection Cycles 1989, 1991, and 1994”

“Medical and Surgical Findings of the Last Three NASA Astronaut Selection Cycles”

“NASA Astronaut Selection Medical Standards Review 1995”

“Conclusion/Discussion”

Speakers

Drs. Baisden/Pool

Drs. McGinnis/
 Jennings/Pepper/
 Johnston/Marsh

Drs. Johnston/
 Jennings/Baisden

Panel

Tuesday 4:00 p.m.

North Ballroom

Human and Plant Interactions in Closed Environments

Co-Chairs – Dr. Arthur Arnold and Dr. Guy Banta

Presentation

“Controlled, Ecological, Life Support Systems (CELSS): Some Historical Perspective”

“Plant Volatiles: Issues Related to Management of Closed Systems”

“Microbiological Studies Related to the Kennedy Space Center Controlled Ecological Life Support System Breadboard Project”

“Biomass Production”

“The KSC Breadboard Project: Evaluating the Feasibility of a Bioregenerative Life Support System”

“Advanced Life Support Systems – Integrated Testing”

“Questions/Discussion”

We encourage all who can, to attend these very interesting and informative panels.

Speakers

Dr. Frank Salisbury

Dr. David Bubenheim

Drs. Jay Garland/
 Dick Strayer

Dr. Maynard Bates

Drs. Ray Wheeler/
 Jay Garland

Dr. Don Henninger

Panel